

How do I pay for LONG-TERM ACUTE CARE?

You have reached the federally-required section of our website outlining the rates and charges for services provided at our facility. While we provide this information in compliance with federal regulations, it is important to recognize the fact that healthcare billing is complex. As a consumer, it is important for you to understand that the standard charges listed here may not be a relevant starting point for estimating what costs you may incur during an episode of care. The actual amount paid by a patient will depend on their insurance coverage, policy provisions, and other factors. Each patient's case is different based on their unique medical condition and treatment requirements.

The charges displayed are limited to hospital charges only. They do not include charges that are billed separately by the physician, or other professional fees. Furthermore, the actual amount paid by a patient will depend on that patient's insurance coverage, as benefit plans vary greatly.

If you have commercial insurance:

- Contact your insurance company. Make sure you understand all of the factors affecting your financial responsibility.
- Numerous factors will affect your financial responsibility to a hospital – factors such as your type of plan, co-pay, coinsurance, deductible, out-of-pocket maximums, provider network, and other limitations.
- The prices below were negotiated with various insurance companies:

Item/Service Description	Billing Level	Payer 1 Negotiated Charge	Payer 2 Negotiated Charge	Payer 3 Negotiated Charge	De-Identified Minimum Negotiated Charge	De-Identified Maximum Negotiated Charge
LTACH Per Diem	Sub-Acute	$728.00	$1,200.00	$900.00	$728.00	$1,200.00
LTACH Per Diem	Acute	$1,196.00	$1,650.00	$1,150.00	$1,150.00	$1,650.00
LTACH Per Diem	Intensive Care	$1,404.00	$1,950.00	$1,400.00	$1,400.00	$1,950.00

If you have Medicare:

- Medicare has many different parts, and not everyone has the same type of Medicare coverage. Medicare will pay for many of your healthcare expenses, but not all of them.
- Medicare has special rules that apply if you have employer group health insurance coverage through your job or a spouse's job.
- If you have a supplemental health insurance policy, it may cover some costs that Medicare does not cover.
- The best way to be sure of what your Medicare plan covers is to call 1-800-MEDICARE, or visit their website at www.medicare.gov.

If you have Medicaid:

- Contact your local Medicaid office for help in determining what factors affect your financial responsibility.
- Medicaid recipients are generally not responsible for any portion of the bill.

If you are uninsured, you can expect to pay the amounts listed below:
